GATHER ye rose-buds while ye may,
Old time is still a-flying :
And this same flower that smiles to-day,
To-morrow will be dying.

HARK ! Hark ! the Lark at Heaven's gate sings,
And Phoebus 'gins arise,
His steeds to water at those springs
On chalic'd flowers that lies ;
And winking mary-buds begin
To ope their golden eyes ;
With every thing that pretty bin ;
My Lady sweet, arise.

SHAKESPEARE.

NOW the bright morning star, day's harbinger,
Comes dancing from the east, and leads with her
The flowery May, who from her green lap throws
The yellow Cowslip, and the pale Primrose.
